

BANDBIO

Triple-X is a young Belgian folk band representing strong exciting groovy (dance) folk music, full of energy. The group performed on several stages throughout Europe and is frequently assisted by guests like singer Soetkin Collier (Urban Trad), Philip Masure (Urban Trad, Comas, ...), Bart Maris, Philippe Thuriot and many others.

Triple-X exists of Bert Leemans on accordion, Björn Van Hove on fiddle, Stéphane Hardy on Breton bombard & sax, Jeroen Geerinck on guitar and Ludo Stichelmeyer on percussion.

The fact that Triple-X covered already a serious musical way clearly can be heard on its first album: "Wodka Vaseline". It has been warmly received by the press publishing reviews and audience, which only acknowledges the reputation of Triple-X as one of the top folk bands from Belgium.
